VANDALISM OF WOMEN ALARMS GREAT BRITAIN

Many Public Buildings Closed.
Slasher of the Venus Gets Six Months.

London, March 12.—The vandalism of the militant suffragettes caused the closing today of a great many public buildings in addition to those which locked their doors yesterday. The Victoria and Albert museum, the crypt and galleries of St. Paul's cathedral, the royal stables at Buckingham palace and the churches were among those affected.

Popular resentment in connection with suffragette outrages were reflected again today in parliament. A number of members urged H. H. Kenna, the home secretary, not to release such a dangerous character as May Richardson, who was sentenced to six months imprisonment for damaging the "lovely" Venus. Premier Asquith answered that he was making an inquiry into the question of the best way of protecting the nation's art.

May Richardson has been on a "hysterical" rampage. She was arrested after her attack on the Venus, a statue of the goddess of love, in the Victoria and Albert museum. She was sentenced to six months imprisonment for damaging the statue. She was also charged with the destruction of the statue of the goddess of love, a statue of the goddess of love, in the Victoria and Albert museum. She was also charged with the destruction of the statue of the goddess of love, a statue of the goddess of love, in the Victoria and Albert museum.

The charge against the prisoner was "malicious damage to a picture." Her first wife and child are living with her mother at No. 238 North Fourth street, New York. She was married to a man named John Richardson, who was a member of the British parliament. She was also charged with the destruction of the statue of the goddess of love, a statue of the goddess of love, in the Victoria and Albert museum.

DROPPING OF MURPHY SCORED BY LITTON

New York, March 12.—The action of the board of governors of the National Democratic club in dropping Charles F. Murphy and other Tammany men from membership was severely criticized today by ex-Congressman Martin W. Litton. In a letter to the president of the club, Mr. Litton is himself a democrat.

In answer to his letter and others from the sixty-five who were dropped from membership, Judge Edward P. O'Dwyer, president of the club, replied that any member who is delinquent in his dues is dropped automatically from membership, and that reinstatement is at the discretion of the board of governors.

"So far," said Judge O'Dwyer, "it is the duty of the sixty-five who have applied and will be reinstated. But Mr. Murphy and the others who were dropped from membership, and that reinstatement is at the discretion of the board of governors."

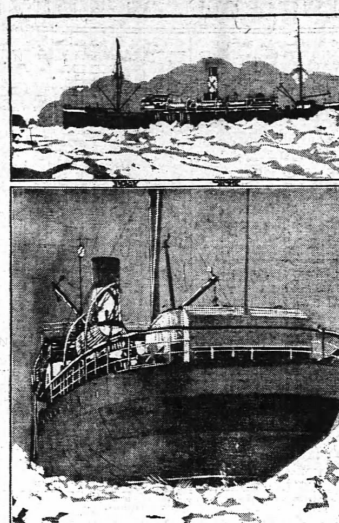

He goes to Gallows

Tampa, Fla., March 12.—Condemned to death by a jury of twelve men, a person, following an alleged threat he had made that he would take a long walk, was executed by hanging at the gallows at high noon today.

He's Held Prisoner
on Bigamist Charge

Savannah, Ga., March 12.—Joseph S. Timmerman, a man who was married to a woman named Mrs. Timmerman, was held prisoner on a charge of bigamy.

Steamers Caught in Ice Packs

TWO VIEWS OF STEAMER FROZEN IN ICE.

So severe has the winter been this year at sea that not only has there been an unusual number of wrecks from storms, but steamers which ply in northern waters are reported to have been caught in the ice and frozen fast. Such a fate befell the big naval tug.

United States was "English-led and English-ruled, and that the obligation of government and civilization rest with the people who speak the language of Shakespeare."

London, March 12.—Walter Hines Page, United States ambassador, was much surprised when told today of the remarks made by him in his speech last night. He declined to discuss the matter until he had received an official demand for an explanation.

He put the question to the interviewer: "The speech was innocent enough. I asked whether objection might be taken to the last sentence of his speech, referring to the Panama canal. Mr. Page replied that that was a pleasure."

The ambassador's remarks were extemporaneous, and no verbal reports were made. The London newspaper differ slightly in the wording of the ambassador's remarks regarding the Panama canal and Central American investment.

Mr. Page here made a lengthy reference to the trading between England and America, especially in cotton, about which he said he had better say here in better English and better than he had.

He could say a similar thing about the Panama canal, but he did not. He said that he was not in a position to say anything about the Panama canal, but he did not.

No. 25 East Third street will speak for itself. Let's get up an argument.

This property is only one block from the Georgian Terrace, is in the heart of the West Peachtree, and is in a section that is familiar to all.

In a year or so, what will this place be worth? Judging from past experience in this section, we should say it would be worth a great deal more. Anyhow, we will recommend it.
